

Tara Labovitz Thankfulness:

In 2021, I am grateful that I live in such a caring little community! With all the programs, send home treats, contests, send home and pick up crafts, etc., it makes living through this pandemic a little better for everyone I think. It is also good because here we can know about outbreaks and stop them quickly and way easier than if we lived in a big city!