

Rama First Nation
Little NHL
Player Code of Conduct

Players must remain respectful toward other players, coaches, referees and spectators.

Inappropriate behaviour towards a player, coach or referee, parent or spectator is subject to disciplinary action by the Little NHL Committee and/or Rama First Nation.

Players should come to practice and games with proper equipment (i.e. skates, helmet, shin pads, pants, mouth guard, etc.).

Signing up to play is a commitment to the team. You need to make every effort to be at all practices and games on time.

Take proper care of your equipment.

Sportsmanship and integrity are fundamental components of the game.

No Drugs, Alcohol, use at any hockey function.

No cell phones during ice times.

I have read and understand the above code of conduct.

Print Name (Player)

Signature

Date